From the desk of your Senior Patrol Leader-

BE PREPARED!!!!

-Jacob W.

Oct. Campout Sum.

What did you miss??? Only the opportunity to earn multiple merit badges in one weekend, while watching Mr. C's attempts to make fire with sticks, and the pleasant smell of Jacob W's chicken sizzling on the grill. Aside from that, Jack B. and I survived the night in our 3 x 4 lean-to that we built out of sticks, leaves, and bark. Overall, the campout was very casual. We had no need for the dining fly and the patrols were very courteous when it came to sharing food. We arrived at the church around 11:30.

**DON'T FORGET!!!****

Popcorn forms are due tonight, Tuesday the 18th of October! We also have the Library Book Sale November 3rd at 5:30pm-8pm, 4th at 4pm-6pm, and 5th at 2pm-4pm. Attending at least one of these is highly suggested for those trying to obtain the ranks of Star, Life, or Eagle. Lastly, the November campout, "Family Traditions", is the 18th-20th of November. Your families will be invited to attend Saturday the 19th for cornbread, turkey, and various other Thanksgiving foods.

Comics, Puzzles, & Pix!

Riddle of the Week: A scout leader goes up to the scribe and says: "I bet I can tell you the score of this week's Brown's game before it starts!" How did he do it?

Scoutmaster's thought

The Scout Law: "a scout is..."
What would you put as the 13th point?
